RICHMOND, N. C., March 1, 1895. DEAR SIR:-The sewing machine ought of you to hand all right. Am ell pleased with it. There is a $55 ma. hine in this neighborhood; would not ive ours for it. Best wishes for you nd the B. A. Yours truly, G. C. COGGINS.

We quote to day in our list of seeds thite kaffir corn and yellow millo Fancy green Rio, nite alimited quantity. These are Good green Rio, Extra choice green Rio, on-saccharine sorghums, and do much etter than ordinary field corn on light, rdroughty, soils. The grain is espeially good for poultry, the stalks ake fine fodder, or ensilage. Five ounds seed one acre.

We appreciate kind words from nany of the brethren regarding our forts with the Agency. But kinder till and more to be appreciated is the ubstantial interest they are taking in by the increased number of new onds, orders, cash and general toning p. This means prosperity for the order in North Carolina.

A brother writes us to day to send mim price list of the Business Agency. Well, now, brother, where are you at, fyou do not know that the price list has been running in THE PROGRESSIVE PARMER for more than a month? THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER is the best Alli nce paper in the State, is the only ex

Strange-that every Allianceman in North Carolina does not subscribe to Golden sheaf, patent, per bbl, Phila......$3 40 HE PROGRESSIVE FARMER. I do not elieve you can be a good Allianceman without THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER, any nore than you can be a good Christian without the Bible. You grow dull and ifeless. The corporations swallow you. Take THE PROGRESSIVE FARMERR. Keep osted and be ever ready to advocate our cause and you will feel like a bet er man. Let every subscriber send in LOCAL TRADE AGAIN.-Now, breth en, you do come to the city. You do buy goods. But our local trade is not near so large as it should be. I know rou are interested in the Alliance and he Business Agency. I think we can business firm here is anxious for your 50 lb tins, 2 in case...... trade. Their contract is the best we have ever had. If you do not call to see us before buying and take advantage of this arrangement, you do your selves and your families an injustice, to say nothing of the Agency. It is the Dry salt extra short clears business of this office to serve you. If you avail yourselves of it, all well. If not, it shall be your fault.

Bro. M. B. Prince, of Henderson, N. writes: "Enclosed find $15 60 to alance bill of feathers of Feb. 11, '95. Owing to bad weather, we had a rather small attendance at our last meeting consequently was unable to renew my bond. Hope to arrange it at next meeting. We do not patronize the Agency as we ought. I find there are two prominent reasons why; first, peoble like to see what they are buying; second, I find that our members use he Alliance price list to beat down the No 121 Porto Rico, local merchants, and they have pretty good success, too. They save money thereby, but such operations do not support the Agency." A brother memer of the legislature tells us that in is county last summer the merchants combined to sell meat at 15 cents a Red illuminating oil, " pound He at once ordered a box of meat through the Agency and sold it to the brethren at cost. With one box he broke down the combination; then old the merchants they could have it. low, brethren, I submit that this is a suicidal policy. The State Alliance Agency is your weapon. You beat the enemy over the head until you get on op, then turn right around and destroy he efficacy of your own weapon by whittling it away, or by letting it rust n the blood of your enemy. When you want to use it again, it is power-988. Crush out or freeze out, your state Agency and your weapon is gone. but, says one, merchants are not our memies. They are not your social memies; they are generally the "best ousiness, but they give you the least Standard A, white, conf't'rs...... for the money. You know what many standard goods are before you see them; others are as represented. Combine your orders, place them through the Agency and you can save money on almost every article you purchase, and doing so keep your weapon bur-
